DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
Washington, February 12, 1919.

Complying with Senate resolution of December 15 (calendar day, December 23), 1918, which directs the heads of the executive departments—to report to the Senate beginning January first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, and every two weeks thereafter during the present session of Congress, the number of civil employees in their respective departments and the number discharged during the previous two weeks—

I have the honor to advise you that on January 29, 1919, the date of the last report, there were 5,215 employees in the Department of Agriculture in the District of Columbia. The number of persons appointed to this department in Washington during the period January 29 to February 12, inclusive, was 144, and the number separated during the same period was 95. The number of employees in the Department of Agriculture in the District of Columbia on February 12, 1919, was 5,264.

Respectfully,

G. I. CHRISTIE,
Acting Secretary.

The PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.
